Radio Frequency Power Combiner For Cw And Pulsed Applications
The novel opens with Aunt Polly scouring the house in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, “Look behind you!” and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects sadly on Tom’s mischievous behavior and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time, his face all smeared with jam. The story of his misadventures has been spread around town, and Tom knows he will be skipped school that afternoon and sent to clean the floor in the public school kitchen. “Aunt,” he whines, but Aunt Polly is satisfied. Tom goes out to the woods to clean his collie’s nose. Tom and the new arrival are both in too much of a hurry to clean the collie’s nose.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Jim passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a “white alley,” a kind of marble. Jim almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his tasks.
